SHELLY'S CAREER

Shelly is an experienced Executive Coach and Mentor, who brings over three decades of leadership experience from her roles as Board Director, Chief Executive and Executive. She has a proven track record of building and nurturing executive teams, people leadership and delivering strong business outcomes in the public and private sectors.

First practising as a Registered Nurse, Shelly transitioned to increasingly senior leadership roles within health (public and private) and life sciences, and subsequently held Chief Executive and Board roles in NZ, Australia and Asia. Her industry experience has seen her lead complex organisation's with ~1BN budgets and 15,000 employees.

Passionate about lifelong learning and professional development, Shelly has focused on the development of others and brings lived experience and deep empathy for the challenges of leading from the top and for senior leaders navigating their career journey. Commercially astute, her style is personalised, values and relationship based, empathetic and direct. This approach has enabled her to support clients to deliver business success by providing a fresh and diverse perspective, informed by a successful executive and director career.

Shelly currently is a Director on three Boards, being the Chair of one of these.
